Wednesday, May 12. 1703.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated May 10.

Nismes, April 27.

THE Marshal de Montrevel is marching towards the Sevennes, he seizes on the Men and Women of all the Villages through which he passes, on pretence that they Correspond with and assist the Rebels. 2 or 3000 Peasants, their Wives and Daughters, are order'd to be carried out of the Country, the Women into Roussillon, the Men to serve in the Spanish Gallies. 5 or 600 Inhabitants of the Villages in the District of Vaunage are likewise carried away.

Nismes, April 27. On Friday last Monsieur de la Donquiere march'd from Venezobre with a Battalion of Marines, whereupon 900 of the Malecontents immediately came thither, set the Church on Fire, and took all the Provisions they could find, of which they were in great want. Yesterday 500 of them appear'd not far from this City, and kill'd several of the Royalists. Monsieur Planque Lieutenant Collonel of the Regiment of Rovergne, had an Encounter lately with 1500 of them near Alets, they had entrench'd themselves near a Bridge, but he attack'd them so vigorously that he put them to the Rout, killing 30 of them.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated May 12.

Paris, May 7. They write from Montpellier of the 29th past, That the Marshal de Montrevel had begun his March against the Malecontents, with 15000 Men and 12 Field-pieces. A Party of the Camisards had like to have taken a Sum of Money convoy'd by 200 Men, who having notice of their Design retir'd into a Castle and stood upon their Defence; The Malecontents not thinking it feasible to attack them, march'd off.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated May 13.

Geneva, April 27. Letters from Languedoc advise, that the Camisards have defeated 800 Men of the King's Troops between Anduse and St. Jean de Gardonique, and that they are Masters of the Field in the Sevennes, and likewise of the flat Country on the side of Nismes and Montpellier; These Letters add that there are 1500 Persons in Nismes, who were taken out of several Towns and Villages thereabouts to be kept as Hostages, to oblige those Towns to continue obedient to the Government.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated May 17.

Alets, May 1. The Marshal de Montrevel having Information that 1200 Malecontents commanded by the Chevalier Roland and another Gentleman, were at a certain House in the Country call'd Vermeilles, he sent Monsieur Planque with 800 Fusileers and 200 Dragoons to beat up their Quarters, who arriving there in the Evening found 800 of them drawn up in order of Battel, whom he charg'd so vigorously that he put them to flight, whereupon many of the rest of that Party who were in the House were kill'd, and 3 or 4 of them taken, who were hang'd up at the Gate. Of the Kings Troops several were kill'd and wounded, among them 2 Captains of the Regiment of Rovergne, and 5 inferior Officers.

From the Paris Gazette a la main, dated May 11.

Some Letters written by the Rebels in the Sevennes have been intercepted, by which it appears that they flatter themselves the English and Dutch will land some Men on the Coast of Languedoc to assist them; whereupon the King has order'd the Commandeur of Roanes to cruize on that Coast with 2 Gallies and several Brigantines. The King hath sent a General Commission to the Marshal de Montrevel, to command in Languedoc with the same Authority that was formerly given to the Marshal de Noailles empowering him to convene the Estates, and dispose of all Offices, &c. Since the Seizing of the Inhabitants of 20 Villages of the Diocess of Nismes, and the sending of the Women and Children into Roussillon, the City of Nismes and the Neighbouring Places have had no Disturbance from the Rebels; and 'tis hop'd that in 3 Months time the whole Province will be thoroughly clear'd of them.

From the Paris Gazette a la main, dated May 14.

Paris, May 14. Within a few Days search has been made after a Crew of Profligate Wretches, Fellows without Religion, who rovd about the Country in the Neighbourhood of Peronne, Montdidier and Beauvais, broke open several Churches, carried off the Communion Plate, and committed execrable Prophanations; one of their Ringleaders an Innkeeper of Clermont in Beauvaisis, in whose House they us'd to harbour, is taken; he call'd himself the Lord of Languedoc; several of the rest of the Gang are likewise taken and are brought with him to this City. They are in quest of the rest.

From the Paris Gazette a la main, dated May 11.

The Duke of Burgundy has declar'd he will make the Campaign in Germany; accordingly his Field-Equipage and Servants are to go from Rheims to Chalons, and thence to Dijon. The Duke will have for the Guard of his Person 100 Guards du Corps, 100 Musqueteers, and the Gens d'Arms that are return'd out of Italy, who will continue in their Quarters of Refreshment in the Franche Compté till the end of this Month.

From the Paris Gazette a la main, dated May 7.

They write from Rochelle, that Monsieur Du Casse is arriv'd there from the Havana with 4 of the King's Ships, having on Board three Millions of Crowns. A Ship belonging to St. Malo is arriv'd at Lisbon, being return'd from the South Sea with 150000 Pieces of Eight.

Hague, May 17. The French have not yet sent

Passports in such Form as is requir'd, that the Commissioners on both sides may meet to regulate the Cartel for exchanging Prisoners. The States General have publish'd 2 Placarts, one importing that the Subjects of this State, who after the first of June 1703, shall carry, send, or vend, any Goods or Merchandize, out of this Country, to any Place belonging to the Kings of France and Spain; or shall send for, transport, or receive, any Commodities from any Place under the Dominion of those Kings, shall shall forfeit the Goods, and be made to pay 4 times the value of them, and shall also forfeit the Ships, Waggon, or Horses &c. that shall bring the said Goods. The other gives Notice, that all Correspondence by Letters, or Exchange, with the Enemies of this State, as also with France and Spain and their Subjects, shall be cut off, and that no Person after the first of June 1703. shall presume to hold any Correspondence by Letters, or Exchange, with the said Enemies, on Penalty of being arbitrarily proceeded against, suitably to the Heinousness of the Offence, and punish'd accordingly, even with Death, if the Court which tries the Cause shall think fit.

A timely Advertisement.
